Coleman's Bural World

The Rural World, one of the oldest and best know agricultural papers published in the Mississippi Valley, comes to us each week laden with matter of interest, not only to the farmer, but to all classes interested in farming. This paper was established 38 years ago, by Norman J. Coleman, now U. S. commissioner of agriculture, and has ever been true to the best interests of the farmers and the West.

At various departments are practically and intelligently susmined. Much interest is taken in the development of the caltle industry, sheep husbandry, dairy farming and all other branches of agriculture which tend to make farming more diversified and be for the good of the whole country.

For example copies send name and ad-ter to Coleman's Rural World, St. Louis transcription, $1.50 per autum, or
